Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-11, 16, 19-22, 24-25, 33-39 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Clary.

Clary discloses a form or molded article 14 which fits over a surface of an existing tile

10. The article or decorative cap 14 includes:

- A first surface 22
- A second surface 54, oppositely disposed from each other
- The first and the second surface and including at least one edge defined by the convergence of the second surface toward the first
- The at least one edge configured for conforming with a corresponding edge of the tile 10
- A mastic adhesive in communication with the second surface; see column 3 lines 12-18; thus meeting the limitations of claim 11;
- The molded article is selected from the group consisting of a plastic article; column 3, lines 20-25;
- The material of the tile has been considered immaterial since applicant is not positively claiming the tile and especially not claiming the combination of the tile and the tile cap; further Clary leaves the possibility of the types of materials open to the particular tile of use. One of ordinary skill in the art would have selected any material known in the art and suitably combined with the tile cap of Clary.

Such a selection is well within the scope of Clary.

- Though claim 19 is a product by process limitation, the tile cap is applied a a surface without grout
- The tile cap has a trimmable knife edge 36; since the material is a compressible plastic the same is obviously trimmable.
- The method steps are met by Cary as the same provides the above structure
- Cary also shows the tile cap positioned over the existing tile

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 12-15, 23, 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Clary in view of Zinbarg (5946869).

Further, the type of adhesive is obviously not critical to the invention in view of the fact that applicant has claimed every type of adhesive known in the art. Given the lack of criticality and relevancy, one of ordinary skill will have been able to select any adhesive that would function as intended. Nevertheless, Zinbarg discloses a plastic material over a panel employing double sided foam tape. Zinbarg also suggest the use of other known adhesives. See column 4, lines 1-35. It would have been obvious to employ any adhesive suitable for use such as the double sided foam tape which prevents marring of the panel surface.

Claims 17, 18, 27, 30 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Clary in view of Stoneburner (3359574). Clary lacks the molded article with germicidal and bacteriostatic characteristics. Given the use of the tile cap of Cary one would desire a cap with germicidal and bacteriostatic characteristics given the pool water is protected against germs and bacteria by the use of chlorine. Stoneburner discloses a wall panel of fiberglass plastic including "impregating the same with a suitable germicidal agent..... in order to kill bacteria.... " One of ordinary skill in the art would have appreciated adding these materials as a further means of protections to users.

Claims 28-29, 31, 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Clary in view of Stoneburner (3359574) and Zinbarg (5946869)

The base reference has been considered as described above and the secondary references are considered and applied as described above.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 3635

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
